Could you...

Play tennis on the centre court at Wimbledon?

NO you can't.

Drive your car around the F1 race track at Silverstone?

NO you can't.

Play football on the hallowed turf at Wembley?

NO you can't.

Play golf at the iconic and world renowned Old Course at St Pierre?

YES you can, made possible by the NHS Retirement Fellowship.

Playing in the footsteps of the likes of Seve Ballesteros, Greg Norman, Tony Jacklin, Ian Woosnam and Jose Maria Olazabal all of whom became successful Ryder Cup Captains, sixty NHS current and retired members of staff, their friends and relatives enjoyed this unique experience when they played as individuals and in 4 ball teams for the coveted CSIS trophy on a fine and sunny day on Thursday 13 September 2018 on the Old Course at St Pierre.

With a global reputation having hosted prestigious events such as The Dunlop Masters, The Welsh Open, The Epsom Grand Prix and the Solheim Cup with the USA being victorious, St Pierre will play host, once again, to the NHSRF Golf Classic.

Open to all existing and retired NHS men and women including friends and relatives, there is all to play for in the following competitions:

CSIS NHS Champion and runner up

John Barker Memorial Trophy. Sponsors and Guests

Champion and runner up

Winning 4 Ball Team and runner up team

"The Fellowship is like a youth club for the older person with lots of diverse activities ranging from the book club, bowling, sky diving archery etc. For golf members, the premier event of the year is the annual golf classic held at the prestigious Marriott St Pierre resort near Chepstow. With special accommodation deals offered by the hotel, many members make it a weekend holiday."

2018 NHS Tournament Champion Richard Keating, receiving the CSIS trophy from Dame Yvonne Moores, tournament Patron.

"The annual NHS Retirement Fellowship golf day in September was again such a fantastic event. Well organised, friendly and such good value for a short stay or just a golf day out. This was my second time playing in the event at the wonderful Marriott St. Pierre venue, and the championship course was in tip-top condition. The event is open to all Fellowship members, family and friends, so put next years date in your diary now!"

Opened in May 1962, the Old Course at St Pierre held its first major golf tournaments, the Welsh Open and the Dunlop Masters in 1971. The Dunlop Masters, which later became the Silk Cut Masters, was held no less than 8 times. From 1986 to 1996, St Pierre played host to the Epson Grand Prix Match Play and Stroke Play tournaments and the prestigious Solheim Cup with the USA being victorious.

Past winners include Seve Ballesteros, Greg Norman, Tony Jacklin, Bernhard Langer, Ian Wooshan and Jose Maria Olazabal all of whom became successful Ryder Cup Captains.
