

Book choices for January / February 2021

We are delighted to introduce you to our next round of recommendations for our Book Club - thanks to everyone who has contributed your thoughts and ideas. Don't forget, you can access these books in paper or hardback copy, on Kindle or other electronic device or via Audible if you prefer. We've tried to go for ones that don't cost much money but remember you don't have to read or review all three.

Our first suggestion is one that has received an enormous amount of commentary and we understand is to be made into a movie - it is:

"Where The Crawdads Sing" - Delia Owens.

Our non-fiction suggestion comes from radio stalwart Jennie Murray and is:

"A History of Britain in 21 Women" – Jennie Murray

as women were overlooked in the recording of history for so long, this could be a very illuminating book and it will be interesting to see if we agree with Jennie's choices or if you think there are some candidates who were omitted.

For our final choice, we have turned to the crime genre and we are suggesting:

"Knots and Crosses" - Ian Rankin.

This is the first in the Rebus series.

Did you guess the perpetrator? What do you think of the characters? Was there a twist that surprised you?

If you are not already a member of the book club, you can join by registering your interest with or Debbie debbie.arnold4@nhs.net in Central Office or by calling them on 01305 361317.

We look forward to receiving your comments back by February 24 and we will publish them here soon afterwards.

Happy reading!!
